TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Definitions

"Contract" means the agreement for USMI to provide Training to the Client as set out herein.

"Client" means the person (detailed overleaf) for whom USMI is providing the Training.

"Conditions" means these terms and conditions.

"Fees" means the fees and expenses for the Training as stated overleaf.

"Notice" means notice given in writing, and shall be deemed to be given upon actual receipt.

"USMI" means the United States Maritime Institute, Inc.

"Training" means the training services (detailed overleaf) which USMI has agreed to provide to the Client.

2. Fees and Payment

All course fees are payable upon confirmation of booking. Attendance on the course is only permitted following receipt of full payment.

3. Instructor Expenses

For customized training contracts, transportation, hotel, and meals for the instructor will be invoiced and reimbursed by the Client at cost, upon presentation of the associated receipts. Air travel less than three hours is in economy class. Hotel accommodations, if available, will be a 3-star facility by U.S. travel agent standards.

4. Confidentiality

Neither USMI nor the Client shall divulge or allow to be divulged to any person any confidential information disclosed by the other party in connection with the Training. This obligation will survive termination of the Contract. This obligation will not apply to confidential information which is in the receiving party's possession before its disclosure, that is or becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the receiving party, or that otherwise becomes available to the receiving party from an independent source not under a confidentiality obligation.

5. Liability

The course material for the Training has been designed as an integral part of the Training solely for the benefit of delegates attending the Training. The material does not stand on its own and is not intended to be relied upon for giving specific advice. USMI will not be liable by reason of breach of Contract, negligence or otherwise for any loss or consequential loss occasioned by the Client acting, omitting to act or refraining from acting in reliance upon the Training course, the presentation of the Training, or any other aspect of the Training. Consequential loss means any loss of anticipated profits, damage to reputation or goodwill, loss of expected future business, damages, costs or expenses payable to any third party or any other indirect losses.

6. Intellectual Property

Any intellectual property rights arising from or relating to the Training, including copyright in the course material shall belong to USMI. No part of the course material may be reproduced in any form without the prior written permission of USMI.

7. Cancelled Registrations

The only payments USMI will make in the event of cancellation are for cancellations made in writing and received:

- Over 20 working days before the start date of the course; the course fees will be refunded
- 11-20 working days prior to the start date of the course; a charge of 50% of the course fee will be payable
- 10 working days or less before the start date of the course; the full course fees will be charged.

8. Booking Amendments

For customized training contracts, there will be no charge if a substitute starting date is requested in writing and will delay the course at least 10 working days. Notwithstanding termination of this Contract the provisions of clauses 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 9 shall continue to apply.

9. Governing Law

Any dispute about the Services or the Contract is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. courts, will be governed by United States law, and settled in the State of Florida, county of Broward.

10. General

No relaxation, forbearance, delay or indulgence by USMI in enforcing any part of this Contract or the granting of any time by USMI shall prejudice or affect or restrict any of USMI's rights and nor shall any waiver by USMI of any breach operate as a waiver of any subsequent or continuing breach. No provision shall be deemed severable and of no force or effect.
